About

Lovasi International provides unique product distribution in the United Kingdom, Canada and the United States.

Finding Unique Pieces for Life is our mantra. We continue to search the globe, bringing our customers originality of products, elegant and exclusive designs and collections that demonstrate superior quality and innovation.

LOVASI
INTERNATIONAL

Lovasi International is the exclusive distributor for Fango Bachas an Argentinean company that manufactures exclusive handmade ceramic wash basins.

Each wash basin is a unique and artistic piece adding style and beauty to a room.

What Makes Fango Wash Basins Different?

Handmade product.

No wash basin is identical as they are made by hand, one by one.

Exclusive design.

Fango is continuously creating new designs.

Hand painted decorations.

May be similar but can differ in small details, creating original works of art.

Environmentally friendly.

Fango Bachas manufacturing process does not harm the environment. The raw materials and its components used in the production process are completely natural, lead-free and recyclable.

Easy to clean.

Disinfectants and detergents can be used without damaging the colours of the ceramic.

Superior quality.

Fango wash basins will not chip or lose their colours with daily use.

Production

The factor that differentiates Fango products in the market, is that production is totally handcrafted.

Each wash basin is completely molded by hand using white clay and chamotte, on a potter's wheel. Chamotte is baked clay with ground stones, which provides a superficial texture, creating the rustic appearance.

In a world of mass production, Fango revindicates the value of handcrafted and artistic products. Providing a more added value than regular mass-produced wash basins.

They are an exclusive design objects that look great with any traditional countertop or vanity unit. For bespoke designs try an organic touch with natural materials such as wood, marble, glass, iron and smoothed cement.

Every wash basin is then hand painted by specialized artists using ceramic pigments and a transparent, matte glaze. All materials are lead free.

They are baked in automatic electric ovens, guaranteeing the highest quality and extreme hardness of the ceramic. This process is highly efficient, therefore, enables production of large orders.

Shape & Size Guide

We currently sell three shapes: round, conical, and cylindrical. Within these shapes there are different size options.

Our size options are great for custom builds and for vanity units in small spaces. Once your choice is made on the shape and size, there are endless options for: colours, patterns and designs.

Fango wash basins are gaining momentum and popularity; home owners are looking for something new, organic, trendy and stylish.

Lovasi International was awarded the prestigious 'Good Homes Loves' award in 2017 for stylish products and inspiring ideas from Good Homes Magazine at the Ideal Home Show in London UK

Leaves in Conical

It is said that a single leaf is an ancient symbol that represents happiness. However it can represent so much more, in fact the leaf can represent a variety of aspects of ones life, as it is a symbol of life itself.

Used symbolically in the Tree of Life. Leaves collect strength that nurture, offering healing properties. Leaves are ubiquitous in the fabric of our lives and bring purity, freshness and beauty.

This elegantly hand made and hand painted wash basin will add new life and vitality into your home.

Pampa Collection - Conical

This traditional Argentinean Pampa is a contemporary design that was created by the original natives more than 5000 years ago and has been carried on by the famous Argentine Cowboys, the Gauchos who roamed the rolling plains of the Pampas.

Used today as an ornament in various pieces of traditional Gaucho craftsmanship. The repetitive symmetry of the Pampa guard describes a mountain and lake that are connected, as are the Andres Mountains and the lakes, with the people of the land.

Paintings in Black - Cylindrical

This Jackson Pollock inspired design is expressive, fun and very impressive. Add a modern industrial flare to your bathroom with this abstract expressionist wash basin that has been molded by hand and hand painted by Artisans.

Cowhide Collection

Introducing cowhide to a room doesn't have to belong in a Western film (unless that's the look you are going for). Cowhide can be a modern sophisticated textual addition to any bathroom. Consider the idea of this accent in a gentlemen's club themed space or a modern industrial loft space. The versatility of a cowhide pattern is hard to compete with and never goes out of style. Just as original as a real cowhide, each wash basin has been molded by hand and hand painted by Artisans, making each basin unique.
